A Grandma to Love

2023!

Ashling Kwok & Kathy Creamer

PUB: AU/NZ 11-23, UK/US/CAN: 08-24

Tessa wants a grandma - she's never had one before - so she sets off to find a grandma who can dance, and sing, and tell funny jokes. Oh, and bake yummy cookies! Will Tessa ever find the perfect grandma to love and play with?

A charming story about how one kind gesture can change someone's life.

Ashling Kwok is an internationally published author of picture books for children. Her books include The Battle, Lola and Grandpa, Where's my Dinosaur? and A Star for Mama. Ashling is a CBCA northern suburbs committee member and is represented by the Creative Kids Tales Speakers Agency.

Award-winning author and children's book illustrator, Kathy Creamer is also an artist and sculptor whose works have appeared in international exhibitions, galleries, magazines and educational publications. She has also written content for computer animation, produced character design, and storyboards.

Roger the Wrasse and the itchy fishes

2024 !

DR SUE PILLANS AKA
DR SUZIE STARFISH

PUB: AU/NZ 01-24, UK/US/CAN 07-24

This story draws attention to the importance of biodiversity on the reef and illustrates the special roles and relationships animals have under the sea. Told through the eyes of Roger the wrasse, all sorts of huge and slippery creatures spot Roger's neon colours and line up to enjoy his 'cleaning services'. Can Roger be brave even when one of his customers is mean-looking?

Celebrating the small creatures
and actions that can make a BIG difference!

Dr Sue Pillans is an Aussie marine scientist and visual artist with a deep devotion for the ocean, also shared by her alter ego, Dr. Suzie Starfish. As an Australian children's author/illustrator ('Authorstrator') she uses the art of marine science and storytelling to engage, educate, and excite children about the wonders of our living oceans - with a big splash of ocean optimism! "Roger the Wrasse and the itchy fishes" is her third book in a series that draw attention to important ocean issues and offer messages of science, solutions and hope. By diving into her stories Dr Suzie Starfish wants to empower our future ocean guardians (our children) that they CAN be the change they want to 'sea' in the world.

The Bad Tooth Fairy

2024 !

Kathy Creamer

PUB: AU/NZ 06-24, UK/US/CAN: 03-25

Hally Toe-Siss is a selfish and wasteful tooth fairy who does all the things that fairies aren't supposed to do, such as judo, karate and kung fu. Having used up all his fairy dust on some rather silly spells he's now unable to perform any magic for the fairy queen's birthday party. Hally needs to collect another tooth to make more fairy dust but none of the children on his list have lost a tooth yet. Whatever shall he do?

An unusual fairy story that highlights the negative impact of waste and the joy of giving

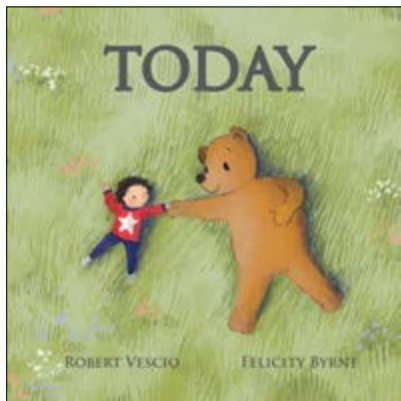

Kathy Creamer is an internationally published author of children's picture books, junior fiction, short adult fiction, educational publications and animation. Her children's titles include The Big Old Rambutan Tree, which won four International book awards, and Lucky's Horse Shoes, which was a finalist in the Rubery Book Awards. Kathy has a Master's Degree in Children's Book Illustration and many of her picture books have won awards internationally and at home.

Today 2024!

Robert Vescio & Felicity Byrne

PUB: AU/NZ 04-24, UK/US/CAN: 10-24

Today is a story about the beauty we find in everything. A child ventures out with his best friend - a bear, and they enjoy a day of realisation and acceptance.

A joyous celebration of love and friendship while exploring the world outside and finding the extraordinary in the ordinary.

Robert Vescio is an internationally published award-winning author of children's picture books, based in Sydney. Many of his picture books have been translated into other languages such as German, Italian, Polish, Chinese and Korean. His picture book Window of Hope was the 2nd Prize Winner in the 2021 Foreability Book Awards Picture Book Category. His aim is to enthuse and inspire children to read and write and leave them bursting with imaginative ideas.

Felicity Byrne is an emerging illustrator who has always had a deep love for art, especially illustration. She resides in Melbourne Australia but has deep country roots, growing up in Gippsland, where her creativity and love of drawing ignited. Felicity absolutely adores being able to bring a story to life, connecting the emotion within stories, to her illustrations. Felicity particularly does so with the various use of light and perspective throughout her pieces.

Emma's Freckles

Sarah Wallace & Lesley McGee

PUB: AU/NZ 03-23, UK/US/CAN: 07-23

Emma has thousands of freckles, but sometimes she wishes she didn't. One day grandma tells her a story from long ago, a story of a shimmering island with mist that dances off the ocean, twinkling stars that speak to you from faraway places, and freckles that are more special than Emma could ever have imagined.

2023 !

A magical story of self-acceptance based on the Gaelic myth of how people got their freckles

Sarah Wallace loves writing magical stories for kids, as well as poetry and short stories. Sarah has worked in education policy for over 20 years and is an active member of the Children's Book Council of Australia. She has been a children's book reviewer, and has a Bachelor of Arts (English) and postgraduate qualifications in early childhood education.

Following an extensive career in print and marketing design, Lesley McGee now works across children's picture books, private commissions and commercial illustration. Passionate about experimentation, Lesley uses a combination of vibrant pencil, pastel and ink and is never afraid to stretch the boundaries of techniques.

Ella and Star

2023!

Michelle Wanasundera &
Nichole Wade

PUB: AU/NZ 07-23, UK/US/CAN: 04-24

Bonny has the best friend in the whole world who understands her sensory issues and is so much fun! But when Ella moves away, what will Bonny do now? With the help of some new unexpected friends, Bonny finds hope that not only she will have someone special again, but someone who will be at her side and help her go on many new adventures.

A beautiful story about navigating loss, being different, and the joy that can be just outside of one's comfort-zone.

Michelle Wanasundera is a freelance writer, editor and children's book author. She is passionate about nature and storytelling, and in particular, her writing aims to bring awareness to diverse and underrepresented groups, promote the efforts for climate action, and to support literacy for all children.

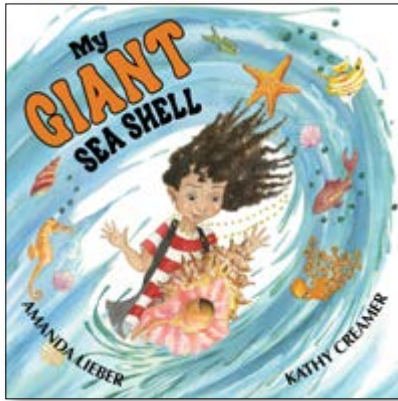

Nichole Wade creates beautiful watercolor illustrations both traditionally and in her unique cut-layered style. Her illustrations are endearing and create a heartfelt connection to readers of all ages. She is constantly inspired by nature and animals—especially wildlife and her rescued crew of critters.

My Giant Sea Shell

Amanda Lieber & Kathy Creamer

PUB: AU/NZ 07-23, UK/US/CAN: 04-24

My Giant Sea Shell is a powerful picture book that introduces the complex subject of depression from a child's perspective. The thoughtful narrative and beautiful illustrations combine to sensitively explore the idea of change within a person who is dealing with depression.

This story is about hope and the strength of family love.

Amanda Lieber loves stories, books, writing and children. She's thrown them all into the air (Warning: if you do this, don't stand underneath when they land) this mix has given her the perfect combination to be a passionate children's book author. So far being an actress has been Amanda's favourite career, she knows that writing stories for children will be her next new favourite.

Award-winning author and children's book illustrator, Kathy Creamer is also an artist and sculptor whose works have appeared in international exhibitions, galleries, magazines and educational publications. She has also written content for computer animation, produced character design, and storyboards

Christmas Under the Overpass

2023!

Katie Flannigan & Katrina Fisher

PUB: AU/NZ 10-23, UK/US/CAN 10-24

Melody watches a man build a makeshift home under a bridge, on the bank opposite her house. Their homes are different. Their lifestyles are different. Their cultures are different. How will they get on? Here is a story of compassion and empathy for the homeless and marginalized in society. With 100,000+ people homeless in Australia, this book explores the realities of homelessness and the kindness of a child.

A beautiful story of non-judgement and acceptance by a new author and illustrator pairing

Katie Flannigan Katie Flannigan is a children's author/illustrator, an animal advocate and climate activist.

Katie's stories focus on issues that matter like bullying, homelessness, feminism, determination, and courage.

Where possible she likes to include messaging about climate change and kindness toward all animals.

Katrina Fisher Katrina is a children's book illustrator based on the beautiful Bellarine Peninsula, in Victoria Australia. She studied Fine Art at the University of Ballarat (Federation Uni) and she holds a post graduate degree in Visual Communication Design from Deakin University. Katrina works from her home studio, illustrating for a range of clients and aims to convey a sense of emotion, playfulness and tenderness in her illustrations. Katrina enjoys creating images of beauty and finds it wonderfully satisfying when her work connects with people and brings joy to the viewer.
